Foreword

As we take leave of your cherished and hallowed walls, dear Alma Mater, we feel our hearts filling up with love and our well of knowledge brimming over. It hardly seems that four years have passed, but when we realize the vast store of knowledge and experience that is ours then we know that they have passed indeed. We are now equipped with invaluable weapons with which to battle our way through the world, and we shall not fail you. We shall surely bring home the victory.

We owe and give heartiest and humble thanks to the faculty and staff of St. Augustine's who have contributed so much in their manifold capacities to our development and maturity. We realize that we often appeared to be hopeless and utterly impregnable to your efforts but "be ye not deceived" for our minds are indelibly impressed with your teaching.

With all our hearts and everything within us, we promise to avail ourselves of every opportunity to make ourselves bigger and better alumni of our grand, magnificent and beloved Alma Mater.

"Success is not won by wishing, but by hard work, bravely done."

To You We Sincerely Dedicate

Cecil D. Halliburton, Dean of St. Augustine's College, was born in Hickman, Kentucky, in 1900. He did his undergraduate work at Lincoln University (Pa.) from which he received his bachelor's degree in 1923. His Master's degree was received from the University of Pittsburgh, and he also holds the diploma of the New York School of Social Work.

During the year 1924-1925, he taught in St. Augustine's College Preparatory Department, leaving to return in 1930 to the then new St. Augustine's College. He became Dean of the college in 1942. The Dean is a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, and editorial writer and columnist for Raleigh's only Negro newspaper, The Carolinian. He also does a weekly column for the Norfolk Journal and Guide. He is the author of a book, "The History of St. Augustine's College."

We, the Senior Class of 1947, are more than proud to acquaint the members of St. Augustine's family with these many outstanding qualities of Dean Halliburton. What we say on this page we say with complete sincerity because he deserves this and even more. To him we owe a debt for the guidance he has given us through the years: he has never failed to give us that advice and guidance that has proved the most advantageous to us.

Dean Halliburton, you have been gentle and painstaking when we were most in need of your support. We are aware of the ungratefulness and utter helplessness we must have exhibited on many occasions, but please believe us when we say that our gratitude knows no bounds. We can never express ourselves on a single page, but as we go out into the world we will endeavor to make use of your every principle and teaching.

So, Dean, please allow us to dedicate this our class annual to you in appreciation for all that you have done toward molding us into real men and women.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Graduation! It hardly seems possible that the 66 eager, green freshmen of 1943 could have evolved to form the 41 dignified, well-educated, prospective alumni of 1947. But, by recognition of the great power of time, we realize that this is possible and an actuality. We were a typical wartime class, made up almost entirely of youngsters and young women. With typical wartime speed, we organized within two months after our arrival. Our first officers were: Charles Farrar, President; Doreatha McHardy, Secretary; Mayme Shuler, Treasurer.

Immediately, we began to make ourselves felt in all activities and classes of the campus. Two-thirds of the class went into the pre-medical department, and the balance went into either French, Music or English. On the basketball team, our athletic prowess was adequately displayed by Jesse Boston and William Jackson. When organizations began their periods of initiation, our academic and social standing was exemplified by the large number of us who achieved membership. As the year sped on to an end, we were the recipients of several of the prizes given at commencement time. Eunice Tucker received the Biology prize; Erma Ligon, the prize for improvement in Freshman English; and Corine Wright, the prize for Qualitative Analysis.

We returned our Sophomore year minus many of our classmates for numerous reasons, especially the eternal draft. Martha Goodson came back as Mrs. Jones, thus giving us our first marriage. We began that year with the following officers: Hugh Marshall, President; Ruth Edgecombe, Secretary; and Mayme Shuler, Treasurer. We had several new members replenishing our depleted ranks. From North Carolina State came Beatrice Carter, Doris McKinney, Lily Hicks, Doreatha Baxter and Juanita Pullen. From Alcorn A. & M. we had Adriena Carter. There were also Vivian Harris and Helen Gill. As this year rolled on, we held our various prominent places with ever increasing dignity and pride. The Clonic Society was organized this year and we figured representatively among the charter members. In the field of prizes, Eunice Tucker received the first prize for excellence in literary composition and Frances DeYoung received the first prize in the dramatic expression contest.

Before we realized it September 1945 arrived and we were "privileged juniors," or so we thought. The end of the war had come and with it veterans—filling our new class membership. They were old St. Augustinians—Bradford Marshall, George Foxwell, Waymond Burton and Chester Byrd. New young women included Marian Lundy, Delores Peebles, Edith Taylor, Lucille Patterson, Pearleen Moore, and Hattie Watford. Immediately, plans got under way for that most important activity of all Junior classes, the Junior-Senior Prom. Our officers for this year were: Helen Payne, President; Harriet Lee, Secretary; and Erma Ligon, Treasurer. We were represented well on the official staffs of the various campus organizations, befitting our academic maturity. Hugh Marshall again was Director of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew; Corine Wright, Vice President of Les Elites; Martha Jones, Vice President of Zeta Sigma Rho; Sarah McClamb, Secretary of the Veledas, and Helen Gill, Vice President of the Veledas. We rambled on through our junior year, leaving our marks indelibly on the honor roll as well as the memories of St. Augustine's family. Again we stood out as recipients of several of the awards. Bradford Marshall received the prize for the best record in the advanced field of the Natural Sciences; Helen Payne, for excellence in Dramatic Expression; Mayme Shuler, the Delany Scholarship; Leroy Thompson, for excellence in Biblical Literature, and Helen Gill, the Latham award.

Our Senior Year! Here we were at last. We didn't know what was to be found on this last rough mile, but we determined to walk it. New members were: A. Richard Henderson, William Fax, Leonard McCarthy, Gwendolyn Cox, Beulina Roberts, Jonah Davis, Gordon Robinson and Oliver Morse. With this new, exciting blood we organized for the last time. Officers were: Oliver Morse, President; Helen Payne, Vice President; Eunice Tucker, Recording Secretary; Harriet Lee, Corresponding Secretary; and Richard Henderson, Treasurer. Again we injected ourselves into vital positions on the Campus. George Foxwell became Lord High Chancellor, Sarah McClamb was President of the Veledas, and Helen Payne, President of Les Elites. George Foxwell also captained the football team and presided over the Varsity Club. Bradford Marshall and Oliver Morse successfully reorganized the Student Council. Into Greek Letter organizations went Gordon Robinson, Oliver Morse, George Foxwell, Waymond Burton, Corine Wright, Delores Peebles, and Marian Lundy.

This year has passed so swiftly! On into the frightening, enveloping world we are going. Ever before us our motto stands, "Success is not won by wishing but by hard work bravely done."

SENIOR CLASS WILL

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1947 of Saint Augustine's College in the City of Raleigh, Wake County, Commonwealth of North Carolina, realizing the uncertainty of life, and being of sound mind, memory, and judgment do hereby make, declare and publish this to be our last will and testament, and do earnestly desire that these our last requests be carried out as hereinafter directed:

ARTICLE I: To our President Rev. E. H. Goold, and to our able adviser Mr. Boyer, we leave our deepest feelings of gratitude and appreciation for their untiring efforts to assist us.

ARTICLE II: Helen Gill and Harriet Lee leave their sweet smiles to Audrey Lawson, but only on the condition that she will not try to dazzle unsuspecting little freshmen with it.

ARTICLE III: Leonard McCarthy leaves his unfailling good temper and courtesy to Sandy Levi, whose need for both of these traits is obvious.

ARTICLE IV: Our class secretary, Eunice Tucker, leaves her high scholastic ability to Rosinda Nealy, and her ability to be versatile in campus as well as civic activities to anyone who loves books and work. She leaves her unwritten secretarial reports unwritten.

ARTICLE V: Hugh George Alexander Marshall leaves the echo of his aristocratic name to Saint Augustine's PEN.

ARTICLE VI: Sarah McClamb leaves her skillful management of the Valeda Club to Rosa Whitley, and to Geraldine Davis she leaves her position as president of the Big Sisters, in hope that each will do a splendid job.

ARTICLE VII: Clara Debnam leaves her well cultivated French accent to Mary Coleman.

ARTICLE VIII: The eminent atomic chemist, Leroy Thompson, leaves his agility in the manipulation of intricate chemical instruments to Walker LeFlore.

ARTICLE IX: Louise Lambert leaves that talking machine personality to Ina Barnes.

ARTICLE X: Otis Muse and Waymond Burton leave their position in the grill to anyone who will do the job as efficiently as they have done it.

ARTICLE XI: Marian Lundy and Mayme Shuler leave their love of Chemistry and Biology to Martha Blacknall, hoping that the latter will find the subjects as fascinating as they did.

ARTICLE XII: Richard Henderson, our class treasurer, leaves his battered old pliers to the future senior class treasurers so that they may extract money from their classmates.

ARTICLE XIII: Delores Peebles leaves her sister at St. Augustine's.

ARTICLE XIV: Erma Ligon and Corine Wright leave their long hours of study to any one who wishes to make a success in College.

ARTICLE XV: Gwendolyn Cox wills her dignity to Hilda Thigpen.

ARTICLE XVI: Jonah Davis asks that we just allow him to leave.

ARTICLE XVII: Chester Byrd leaves his athletic ability to Arthur Calloway and his quiet manners and hushed voice to all St. Augustine's men.

ARTICLE XVIII: Pearleen Moore and Lucille Patterson, the sisters of the Senior Class, will their ability to get along with everyone and to make friends easily to anyone who can transfer in their Junior year and acquire as many friends as these girls have.

ARTICLE XIX: Vivian Harris and Beatrice Carter will their athletic ability to Mildred Armstrong, hoping that the latter will some day become an international star.

ARTICLE XX: Doris McKinney leaves her sense of humor to her brother, Calvin.

ARTICLE XXI: Helen Payne leaves her position as editor-in-chief of the PEN to Kenneth Young, and the Presidency of Les Elites Society to Alma Harris. She also suggests they both pray for physical strength and endurance.

ARTICLE XXII: Oliver Morse, our class president, leaves his gavel in hope that order will be kept at all meetings, and he wills his athletic ability to Aubrey Lawson.

ARTICLE XXIII: Arthurine Cook leaves her sweet disposition and voice to Ruby Wynn.

ARTICLE XXIV: Beulina Roberts leaves her thoughts at St. Augustine's.

ARTICLE XXV: Ellen Alston wills her position as Junior House Director to Clara Coward; her position as co-editor of the PEN she leaves to Irving Mayson.

ARTICLE XXVI: William Fax wills his ability to keep cool, calm and collected to Sandy Levi.

ARTICLE XXVII: Doreatha Baxter and Adriena Carter leave their places as outstanding members of the Business Department to any student majoring in Commercial Education who can make as great a success as they.

ARTICLE XXVIII: George Foxwell leaves the Chancellors Club minus an excellent man, and the captaincy of the football team he leaves to Irving Mayson and Wayland Horton.

ARTICLE XXIX: Helen Kilpatrick bequeaths her outstanding traits of womanhood and scholarship to Geraldine Davis.

ARTICLE XXX: Carolyn Evans leaves the echoes of her distinctive laugh to the winds and she leaves her position in the choir to Catherine Finlay.

ARTICLE XXXI: Stanislaus Solomon and Bradford Marshall leave their good records in Natural Sciences to anyone who can maintain the same throughout college; their positions as laboratory assistants to a deserving young man of the Junior Class.

ARTICLE XXXII: Adelaide Hart wills her ability to be at Choral Club rehearsals every Tuesday and Thursday evenings to Yvonne Browne, and to Yvonne she wills her ability to entertain her classmates with her melodious voice.

ARTICLE XXXIII: Gordon Robinson leaves his nonchalance to anyone who finds it useful.

ARTICLE XXXIV: And in conclusion, to all incoming classes, we, the Class of 1947, leave the many happy hours of fun and joyous comradeship that we have known in our four years in the best college in the Universe.

SIGNED, SEALED, AND PUBLISHED this day by the members of the class of 1947, as the last will and testament of the class, and in the presence of the undersigned who have drawn up and signed as witnesses to the same.

MAYME SHULER,
Testator.

WITNESSES:

CLASS SONG

Oh, blessed school, we turn to you

To say, "forever be;"

For what we've learned in all your walls

Shall last eternally.

You've been our pillar and our forge

And have given Youths fair start.

The wealth that you have offered us

Includes the science and art.

Now we will prove our gratitude

In all we say and do;

We'll make things bright through darkest night—

In memories of you.

In this great race we've set a pace;

Your frame shall e'er be seen.

Your beacon light, the school of might,

A place so calm and plain.

HELEN VIOLA KILPATRICK, '47.

Music, ADELAIDE DUFFERIN HART, '47

CLASS POEM

Oh, fairest St. Augustine's, praises to thee we bring.

To the powers thy care has taught us, forever we will cling.

Of these we will ever boast, while traveling along our chosen course;

For these powers we command are powers of the land.

Now dear Alma Mater, though leave we must.

We feel we have knowledge we can trust;

Not with complacence but with security;

A security of oblation and obligation.

So dear Alma Mater, may this be our oration,

We shall strive to create a more perfect nation,

Not a nation of might but a nation of right

With God in sight.

So wherever we see the blue and white gleaming,

We will always know the meaning,

Though dark the world may be.

We can turn our thoughts to thee.

Remembering, "The truth will set us free."

HELEN VIOLA KILPATRICK, '47.

The Clionic Society is the outgrowth of the interest on the part of the students of Saint Augustine's College in current issues and problems. Mr. T. L. Spraggins realized that many of the students enjoyed debates, group and panel discussions. Therefore, in the fall of 1945 he gathered together representatives—students of different classes—and organized the Clionic Society.

The qualifications for membership are very simple: an average of "C" in academic work and an interest in current topics, magazines and other periodicals. The Club has grown considerably in membership since it was chartered. During the past year, it led St. Augustine's in its history-making achievements at the North Carolina Student Legislative Assembly.

A SAINT AUGUSTINE'S ATHLETE

I was very much enthused when assigned the task of interviewing one of the most interesting personalities of the campus, Coach Russell Blunt.

Coach Blunt attended Punchard High School, Andover, Massachusetts, and played football and basketball for two years, graduating in 1926. In 1927, he came south to attend St. Paul's Normal and Industrial School in Lawrenceville, Va. During his stay at St. Paul's, he captained the football and basketball teams (1928-29). In 1930, he was graduated from trade school with a diploma in printing.

In 1932, he entered the freshman class at Bluefield State College, Bluefield, W. Va. Again he participated in athletics—playing against St. Augustine's College. Through friendships made during these games he decided to enter St. Augustine's College and did so in the fall of 1933.

After playing two games of football here, he became student coach under Coach George Mitchell. He also captained the team during his senior year (1935). In 1936 he was graduated, and spent the next two years coaching independent athletic teams in Lawrence, Massachusetts, before accepting the position of assistant athletic director and assistant dean of Men at Southern University, Scotlandville, Louisiana.

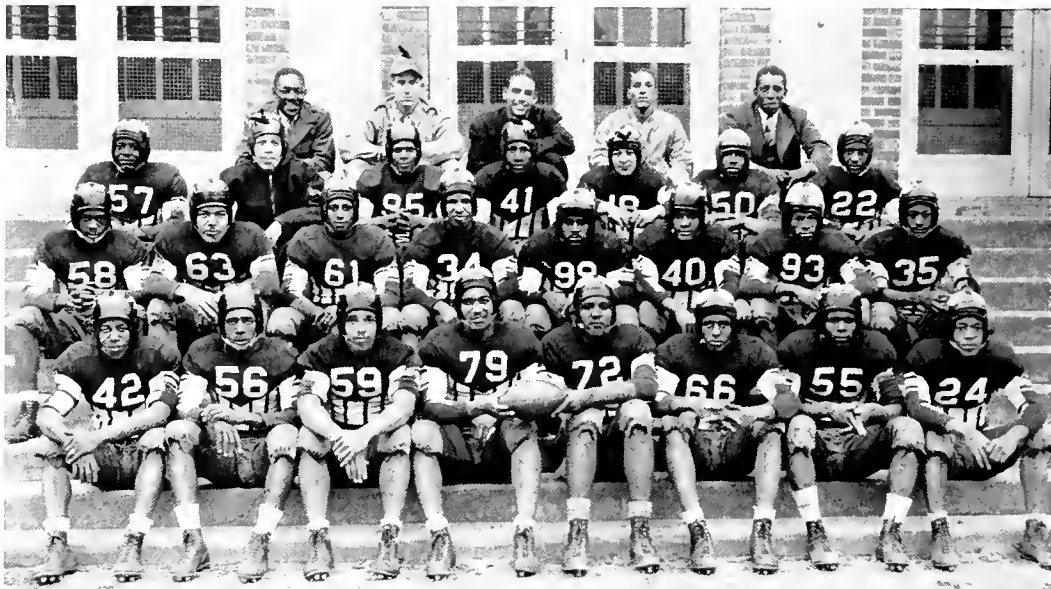

Coach Blunt left Southern University in 1942 to accept a position as head coach and dean of men at Florida Normal College in St. Augustine, Florida. In 1943 he began work on the degree of Master of Education, which he received from Boston University in 1944. From 1944 to 1946 Mr. Blunt was head coach and teacher of health and physical education at the McKinley High School in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. At present he is coach here at St. Augustine's and also head of the department of Health and Physical Education.

Coach Blunt feels that no school's athletic program can be successful without the wholehearted coöperation of the administration. The coöperation of students, coach, athletes, alumni and friends is essential. It's not too big a job for every student in the College.

Coach Blunt's main school interests are all kinds of athletics and providing recreational means by which the students can be kept busy. He has no particular hobby. Mr. Blunt is a member of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

To Coach Russell Blunt: The senior class of St. Augustine's College offers you hearty congratulations for returning to our Alma Mater to give of your athletic ability toward building up our common interest—dear ole St. Aug.!

A. DELORES PEEBLES.

ORCHIDS

It's only human for people to like to receive awards. Perhaps I should say that it's only natural for people to like to receive awards for something which they may have done that was constructive. Personally, I like to see people rewarded for everything they do. Of course, the value of the award should be determined by the constructiveness of the accomplished task which warranted their receiving it. Therefore, I hereby bestow upon the following persons and organizations award of ORCHIDS:

Big Sisters' Club for its delightful Initial "Get Acquainted Ball."

Les Elites Society for its helpful "Charm Week," with it emphasis on the "correct thing."

The football team's dynamic, victorious comeback after five years of inactivity.

Mrs. Delany for the entertaining one-act plays on Anniversary Night.

Misses Alma Harris and Caroline Alexander for their magnificent duo-piano recital.

All of St. Augustine's engaged couples.

Zeta Sigma Rho Society for its "sharp" Christmas dance.

Mr. Lynch for his heroic recovery after his illness.

Messrs. Blunt, Boyer, and Perry for returning to their Alma Mater and lending such helping hands toward leading her upward.

Veleda Club for bringing the ambitious Washington High Glee Club to the campus again.

The many students for their successful entry into Shaw's Greek Letter organizations.

The Chancellors Club for its thoroughly intellectual presentation of its Palm Sunday Tea.

Richard Powell for letting the campus know that not all men are without training and courtesy.

The basketball team for its "die-hard, fighting spirit."

The practice teachers for a hard job "well done."

To the Acies for showing us how Taylor Hall can look when it is really decorated at their Easter Monday dance.

Those freshmen who have learned that St. Aug. is a great place, and have become so well adjusted.

Classroom Shots

Oops! don't mix the wrong thing.
Hey Bugg! What you got there?

Radios aren't so hard to build but gosh, don't they look hard.

Turn around, Kit. At least pretend that you are interested.

Isn't it a pity we all cawn't dawnee like this?

It must be interesting—finding out what makes a frog tick, then putting it on slides.

All through your school years,
I will watch with good cheers,
The progress of your education,
I will provide good light,
For your studies at night,
From the start until your graduation.

As for food and good health,
There, also, I will help,
With appliances and safe 'frigeration,
Your books and your clothes,
What else, goodness knows,
I've made with my 'lectrification.

When you leave your school days,
There'll be hundreds of ways,
I'll help in your chosen profession,
For us, it's never goodbye,
'Cause in the future I'll try,
To continue my cooperation.
